

First Things First supports early childhood programs in Arizona through grants to community organizations that provide services—at no cost—for young children from birth to age 5 (before kindergarten) and their families.

The boundaries of the First Things First Cocopah Tribe Region match those of the Cocopah Reservation. The Reservation is comprised of three noncontiguous regions: East, North and West Reservations.

Parenting

There's no one right way to raise a child, and you don't have to be perfect. These programs are here to help you learn effective ways to support your child's healthy development and learning.

Home Visiting Programs

Work 1-on-1 with a trained and caring parent educator, in the convenience of your own home, to build on the parenting skills you already have and nurture your child's health, development and learning.

Child Health and Development

All children develop differently, but it helps to know if they're meeting typical milestones or could use extra assistance, and many medical and dental problems can be prevented.

Nutrition and Physical Activity

Participate in a series of fun classes to be more informed about nutrition and wellness and help motivate your family to eat healthy and be physically active.
